

COL. RIVERS INSPECTS G. U. RESERVE OFFICERS

Col. W. C. Rivers, of the Third United States Cavalry, commandant at Fort Myer, Va., inspected the cadet battalion of the Georgetown University reserve officers training corps unit yesterday afternoon. Commanded by Major W. H. Hobson, U. S. A., the two cadet companies passed in review. Music for the review was given by the Fort Myer band. The cadets gave a short exhibition of close and extended order drill, and the machine gun and automatic rifle squads showed splendid form. Major Medorem Crawford, Jr., head of the third camp area, was also present.

COFFEE HISTORY

Story No: 6

From the "City of the Sultan" the use and popularity of coffee quickly spread outward—first to Persia and Syria, and then to Cairo.

Venetian merchants, returning from the Orient, were the first to bring coffee into Christian Europe. The first public coffee-house in Venice, the "Cafe Florian," was opened in 1615 in St. Mark's Square. It exists to this day.

Two Famous Musicians Are To Be Feted

WASHINGTON is paying homage today to two world famous musicians, Jan Ignace Paderewski, pianist, statesman and sometime Prime Minister of Poland, and Eugene Ysaie, famous Belgian violinist, who is appearing in Washington in a new role as conductor of the Cincinnati Orchestra. Mr. Paderewski and Mme. Paderewska, who reached Washington yesterday, will be entertained at dinner tonight by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansing, and will meet a distinguished company of guests. Tomorrow night they will be guests of the Polish Minister and Princess Lubomirski at a brilliant dinner party and reception. They are staying at the Shoreham and expect to be in Washington until Monday.

The Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier entertained some thirty or forty guests at the buffet luncheon which they had today for Mr. Ysaie and some of the members of his orchestra.

Baron and Baroness de Cartier, with members of the embassy staff, will attend the concert which the orchestra is giving at the National Theater this afternoon. Former Senator James D. Phelan, who has a box, will entertain a party of guests including the Counselor of the Russian Embassy and Mme. de Bach, Mrs. Truxton Beale, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Townsend and J. de Lagerberg, of the Swedish legation.

Mrs. Larz Anderson also has a box for the recital this afternoon, which is one of the most important events of a musical season which has provided many a treat. She will have as guests Mrs. John P. Story, Jr., Miss Patten, Miss Gilmore and Mrs. A. Z. Webster, Mrs. Richard Townsend, Mrs. Henry Price Wright and Congressman and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth are others who will entertain box parties. Mr. Longworth, who is an accomplished violinist, was for a long time a pupil of Ysaie.

President Harding will today receive a number of South American diplomats, who will present letters of congratulation from their governments.

Lady Geddes, wife of the British Ambassador who will be at home this afternoon, will be assisted by Mrs.

The Minister of Ecuador and Mme. Elizalde gave a dinner last evening at which the guests included the Chilean Ambassador and Mme. de Thieffen, the Minister from Colombia and Mme. Urueta, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, Congressman and Mrs. Fred Britten, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wardman, Colonel and Mrs. Charles Ridley, Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Horace Macfarland, and the secretary of the legation and Mme. Yeaza.

Mrs. Alexander Stewart and Mrs. Mary Stewart were hostesses at dinner last night at their home, 2209 Massachusetts avenue northwest, their guests including the Peruvian Ambassador and Mme. Pizet, and Colonel and Mrs. Daniel C. Devore, who are the guests of Mrs. Stewart. Mrs. Alexander Stewart will entertain tomorrow at a tea for Mrs. Devore, who, with Colonel Devore, is leaving tomorrow night for Fort Sheridan, the post to which Colonel Devore has been ordered.

Senator and Mrs. Frank B. Kellogg have left Washington for Pinchburg, S. C., where they will remain until after Easter.

Mrs. Charles Foulke will entertain at luncheon next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edouard Albion will be hosts at an informal musicale to night in their studio.

Mrs. Lawrence Phipps, wife of the Senator from Colorado, and family are occupying one of the Homestead cottages at Hot Springs until March 28.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Roland Cotton Smith have gone to White Sulphur Springs for a two weeks visit.

Mrs. Armstead Davis entertained at dinner last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus F. Kountze, of New York. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., Mrs. Charles S. Bromwell, Mme. de Gana, Prince de Bearn, Major John G. Quekemeyer, Colonel Wise and Major Henry H. Armstead, of New York.

Major Armstead, who is Mrs. Davis' brother, is staying with her.

Col. Robert M. Thompson has gone to Miami, Fla., to be with Mrs. Thompson and Miss Hilda Sykes, who have been spending some weeks at the Florida resort. Mrs. Thompson is expected in Washington the last of this month, but the Colonel will probably remain in the South until mid April.

Mrs. Sallie Gray and her daughter, Miss Agnes Gray, of Forest Hills, N. Y., have come to Washington, and are at the Highlands where they have taken an apartment for two months.

Miss Rosa Maye Kendrick will entertain at luncheon tomorrow at her apartment in 2400 Sixteenth street in honor of Miss Violet Henry and Miss Leonora Henry. The Misses Henry are daughters of Mrs. Philip Henry, of England and with their mother are spending the winter and the spring at Wardman Park Hotel.

Mrs. John B. Kendrick and Miss Kendrick will be at home on Sunday afternoon, receiving after 4 o'clock.
